

Why The Dukes & Smith Band?

The Dukes and Smith Band...four guys...loads of music, entertainment, and fun! Buddy Dukes (guitar, keyboard, vocals) and Todd Smith (drums, vocals) join forces with Tim Vaughan (bass) and feature 16-year-old guitar phenom Patrick Dukes to bring together a lively, interactive show with a variety of music that gives everyone in the audience a little something and leaves them wanting more.

The Dukes and Smith formula of performing music with drive, intricate harmonies, and spontaneity is the starting point for a show that could go almost anywhere. On any given night, you may hear them play Classic/New Rock, Pop, Country, Folk, Blues, Beach, Alternative, Bluegrass, RnB or Reggae depending on the audience...and you never know what they may try. And the fun continues between sets with dance favorites and lights (depending on venue / client preference).

Whether it's a festival, private party, corporate event, nightclub show, wedding, or other event, the total focus is on making sure your audience has fun and your event is a success. The Dukes and Smith Band are consummate professionals, have equipment that allows them to play a variety of venues (both indoors or out), and will work with you on special requests to help make your event go smoothly.
